EXPLANATIONS

Filing of Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case

A bankruptcy case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by each of the debtors listed on the front side, and an order for relief has been entered. Chapter 11 allows a debtor to reorganize or liquidate pursuant to a plan. A plan is not effective unless confirmed by the court. You may be sent a copy of the plan and a disclosure statement telling you about the plan, and you might have the opportunity to vote on the plan. You will be sent notice of the date of the confirmation hearing, and you may object to confirmation of the plan and attend the confirmation hearing. Unless a trustee is appointed, the debtor will remain in possession of the debtor's property and may continue to operate any business.

Creditors May Not Take Certain Actions

Prohibited collection actions are listed in Bankruptcy Code § 362. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the debtor by telephone, mail or otherwise to demand repayment; taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the debtor; repossessing the debtor's property; starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures.

Meeting of Creditors

A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time and location listed on the front side. The debtors' representative must be present at the meeting to be questioned under oath by the trustee and by creditors. Creditors are welcome to attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date without further notice. The date and time of future (continued) meetings may be learned by one of the following methods: (1) Calling the Court's Voice Case Information System (VCIS) at (800) 260-9956 or from outside the United States at (802) 776-2007; (2) Reading the Court's docket via the Court's Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) system (call (800) 676-6856 for information about Internet use of PACER and related fees); (3) Contacting the Clerk of Court; (4) Contacting the attorney for the Debtors; or (5) Contacting the Office of the U.S. Trustee at (518) 434-4553.

Claims

Filing of Proofs of Claim: The debtors will file schedules of liabilities pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007. Any creditor holding a scheduled claim that is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to amount may, but is not required to, file a Proof of Claim in this case. A Proof of Claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. Creditors whose claims are not scheduled or whose claims are listed in the schedules as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to amount and who desire to participate in the case or share in any distribution must file their Proofs of Claim. The deadline for filing Proofs of Claim has not yet been established. You will receive a separate notice of the deadline, along with a special proof of claim form and information as to how your claim, if any, has been scheduled by the debtors. If you elect to file a Proof of Claim prior to receiving such notice, you may do so by utilizing a Proof of Claim form that substantially conforms to Official Form 10. Proof of Claim forms are available in the clerk's office of any bankruptcy court. The place to file a proof of claim is: FiberMark Claims Center, c/o Logan & Company, Inc., 546 Valley Road, Upper Montclair, New Jersey 07043.

Information Concerning Offers to Purchase Claims: Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims held by creditors against a debtor for an amount that is less than the face amount of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact you and offer to purchase your claim against one of the debtors. Some of the written communications from these entities may be easily confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtors. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtors. Therefore, you have no obligation to sell your claim to these entities. In the event you do decide to sell your claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court. Evidence of the transfer of any claim must be filed at the following address: FiberMark Claims Center, c/o Logan & Company, Inc., 546 Valley Road, Upper Montclair, New Jersey 07043.

Discharge of Debts

Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See Bankruptcy Code § 1141(d). A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor, except as provided in the plan.
